Because of these options for students to seamlessly continue their programs of study, no formal arrangements for a teach-out plan in conjunction with other institutions were necessary.

Notes: The Department became aware of this closure from an electronic application recently submitted

Student Arrangements: The EMBA program is essentially divided into two parts. The first part is a cohort model encompassing 36 credits that is taught in a cohort manner. The second part are a series of four (4) one-week intensives spread across the 19-month program (two (2) separate weeks in Pittsburgh, one (1) week in Prague and one (1) week in Sao Paulo). In the present case for the 2016 graduating class for EMBA, 5 students from the Prague cohort and 3 students from the Pittsburgh cohort expressed health related concerns due to the Zika crisis and ultimately opted not to go to the one-week Sao Paulo intensive. We were able to create a substitute course for the three Pittsburgh students wherein they were able to complete their entire course of EMBA study by the Fall of 2016. We believed that we would be able to create a substitute course for the 5 Prague students wherein they would also graduate in Fall of 2016 as they had met all other program requirements in Prague as well as the other 3 one-week intensives. Despite our best efforts, we were unable to schedule an alternative solution for these 5 students in the Fall 2016 term. The group walked with their cohort at commencement and an alternative independent study option was created allowing them to substitute the work that they were unable to complete in Brazil. This substitute work will occur in the Spring 2017 term and the students will then be certified to receive their MBA degree albeit one term later.
